Offer Expires: December 31, 2008

Yes, that's us in the picture. We're at a cousin's wedding, at a wine-tasting party, in a room called Shangri-La, overlooking the foothills of Ojai, California just before sunset. It doesn't get much better. My family is my greatest joy.

A lot of people ask me/us how we raised such great kids. Here's my simple answer: "We did what we believed was right and then we prayed." Obviously it worked.

Here's my mantra:

- I do what I love
- I'm really good at it
- I'm deeply in love with my wife Terry - married for thirty years
- I have two magnificent, incredible daughters, Kate and Courtney and
- We're all in excellent health!

That's my story and I'm sticking to it.

Here's to a great 2009!

The "Thinking Big: Focused and Organized Newsletter" is written on a monthly basis.
